

ARKANSAS BALLOT ISSUES

What's on the ballot in 2022?

Arkansas voters have a say this November whether to change the Arkansas Constitution. State legislators voted to put 3 proposed constitutional amendments on the ballot for you to decide. Citizen groups are also collecting voter signatures throughout this summer to add their own proposals to the fall ballot.

LEGISLATIVE PROPOSALS

- SJR10: A constitutional amendment to allow the General Assembly to convene in extraordinary session upon the issuance of a joint written proclamation of the speaker of the House of Representatives and the president pro tempore of the Senate or upon the submission of a written proclamation containing the signatures of at least 2/3 of the members of the House of Representatives and at least 2/3 of the members of the Senate to the speaker of the House of Representatives and the president pro tempore of the Senate requesting that the General Assembly convene in extraordinary session
- SJR14: A constitutional amendment to create the “Arkansas Religious Freedom Amendment”
- HJR1005: A constitutional amendment to reform certain measures presented to voters, to be known as the “Constitutional Amendment and Ballot Initiative Reform Amendment”
