Cloverbud Day

The Baxter County Youth Leadership club will be hosting Cloverbud Day Wednesday, August 1st, from 9 am to 12 pm at the Cooper Park pavilion. This is open to all cloverbuds ages 5-8. Cost is $3.00 per participant. Registration due by July 23rd.

County Council/ Teen Leaders Meeting

Tuesday, August 14 at the Baxter County Farm Bureau conference room at 6 pm.

Over night 4-H Campout August 8-9

Boone County 4-H has invited us to participate in their Take A Look at the Night Sky program/end of summer camp in August.

They plan to have an overnight camp at the Fred Berry Center August 8-9. There is no cost for the Fred Berry Center, just a $50 deposit to have the restrooms open, but we get that back if we leave it in good shape.

It is open to junior and senior 4-Hers, but 12 and under must have a parent camp with them.

The fee is $10 to cover the cost of food. Let me know if you would like to join them. The Fred Berry Center has tents, but no sleeping bags. Thanks!

4-H Leadership 101 Day

Baxter County will be holding a 4-H Leadership Day on July 16, 2018. It will be set up in a style similar to TLC. There will be workshops, games, and even a funshop!

Improve your public speaking skills in our Impromptu Speaking workshop! Have fun and test your memory and teamwork skills in our invisible maze funshop!

Learn about the stress and struggles of life through a balloon game in the Stress and Struggles workshop!

Events will be held at the Baxter County Fairgrounds, and participation will be $5.

Lunch will be provided. The leadership day will start at 10:00am and should be finished by 5:00pm. You must be 13 or older to participate.

See you there, 4-Hers!

If you intend to participate please text your name to (870)-321-8755 by July 9 so that we can have nametags made beforehand and have a headcount for lunch. Please bring your $5 with you to the event.
