All meetings and activities announced in this informational packet are open to all youth between the ages of 5 and 19 without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, gender, disability, or any other legally protected status. Persons with disabilities who require alternative means for communication of program information (large print, audiotapes, etc.) should notify the county Extension office as soon as possible prior to the activity. The Arkansas Cooperative Extension Service is an Affirmative Action / Equal Opportunity Employer.

The Faulkner County 4-H Guide has been prepared to give you an overview of the purpose of the 4-H program as well as a brief look at the many opportunities available to your family.

We find that behind most successful 4-H members stands a 4-H parent who encourages, guides, and supports his or her child. We hope you too will become interested in the 4-H program by helping your child. Make 4-H a family affair.

4-H offers an opportunity for young people to participate in projects that help them learn how to make decisions and do tasks in the home, school, or community. Members use their head, heart, hands, and health to learn by doing.

4-H members have the opportunity to:

- * Be leaders and followers
- * Learn by doing
- * Accept responsibility
- * Practice citizenship
- * Earn recognition and awards
- * Build character
- * Maintain records
- * Attend camps
- * Get along with others
- * Make decisions
- * Exhibit their efforts
- * Be a part of a positive peer group
- * Receive scholarships

The adults working with your local 4-H club are volunteers. They share their time, talents and caring attitudes to help create a positive learning experience for the children.

It costs nothing to join 4-H. We receive no outside funding, so we will have various fundraisers throughout the year to support our organization. The Faulkner County 4-H Foundation oversees the spending of funds.

Best wishes for an enjoyable 4-H learning experience! Watch your monthly newsletter for dates and prices (if any) for upcoming events.

WHAT IS 4-H?

4-H is the official youth organization of the Cooperative Extension Service, a division of the University of Arkansas Division of Agriculture. It is an informal education program for children and is conducted locally by volunteer leaders in cooperation with County Extension personnel.

4-H has young people sharing, doing, and learning together in a variety of projects, events, and activities, with guidance from their families, volunteer leaders and Extension personnel. Members choose projects that interest them. Group activities such as meetings, workshops, tours, camps, and competitive activities provide additional learning experiences.

Most 4-H clubs meet once or twice a month. During these meetings, they conduct business, share ideas, learn new skills, participate in decision making, and enjoy recreational activities. 4-H members develop self-confidence and leadership skills, and become involved in community service activities.

All meetings and activities are open to all youth between the ages of 5 and 19 without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, gender, or disability. Persons with disabilities who require alternative means for communication or program information (large print, audiotapes, etc.) should notify the County Extension office as soon as possible prior to the activity.

PURPOSE OF 4-H

The purpose of 4-H is two-fold:

- * To provide the opportunity for parents and other interested adults to work in youth development.
- * To provide real life experiences for youth through a fun, learn-by-doing, action-oriented, and practical program.

Volunteers serve as 4-H leaders to plan and carry out organized learning experiences with youth. Many of the learning experiences are at the local club level and are supplemented and supported by the many county, regional and state activities.

4-H PROJECTS

A 4-H project consists of what a 4-H'er learns, makes or does. For example, some projects are to learn to grow a garden, make a dress or train a dog.

4-H members should take at least one project each year and complete records for that project. Younger 4-H'ers should limit themselves to one or two projects per year. Older 4-H'ers may want to take three or four.

Your 4-H club will try to locate a project leader when there are three or more members enrolled in a project. The project leader will notify members when and where the project meetings will be held. When there is no project leader, the member will be expected to work individually. As a family, you can use the 4-H project literature to guide your learning.

The family of a 4-H'er should take an active interest in his/her project. They should assist, encourage, and offer advice, but remember, the 4-H'er learns by doing.

HOW WILL CHILDREN BENEFIT FROM 4-H MEMBERSHIP?

From a child's perspective, 4-H'ers benefit from membership because they:

- * Learn, make, or do things that appeal to and are meaningful to them.
- * Make friends, belong to a group, give and receive acceptance and affection.
- * Have a good time—which makes learning appealing and enjoyable.

From an adult perspective, 4-H is beneficial because each 4-H'er will one day become a contributing and caring member of his or her community through the knowledge and life skills he or she learned in 4-H. 4-H'ers will learn how to:

- * Develop an inquiring mind and a desire to learn.
- * Make decisions and solve problems.
- * Relate to and work with other people.
- * Develop a concern for their community and the people in it.
- * Build their self confidence.

4-H AWARDS AND REWARDS

4-H offers a variety of awards and rewards such as trophies, ribbons, certificates, pins, trips, and cash scholarships.

In addition to these material awards are the personal rewards of accomplishment and self-satisfaction that result when a child knows that he or she has done his or her best.

A special 4-H Recognition Banquet held annually honoring our 4-H members and volunteer leaders. It recognizes 4-H'ers who excel in their projects and activities. Leaders are also recognized for their contributions to 4-H.

WHY AND WHEN DID 4-H ORIGINATE?

4-H work began around the turn of the century as a means of reaching adults with improved farm and home practices. At the time, American farmers had experienced economic hardship for 30 years; to try a new recommended farm practice would have been risky. In 1902, a few school teachers developed crop demonstrations with their students who, in turn, shared their successes with their parents.

These school projects developed into small groups covering a single topic such as beef, corn, gardening, and canning. By 1903, they were called 3-H clubs, and in 1911, the name 4-H was officially adopted.

The first 4-H-type club in Arkansas was established in White County in 1908. By 1914, corn clubs, cotton clubs, pig clubs and canning clubs were operating all around Arkansas.

The 4-H objectives have changed since the early days. Today, members are no longer limited to agriculture projects. 4-H offers urban and rural opportunities to learn, to develop leadership abilities, and to become informed and effective citizens.

4-H EMBLEMS AND SYMBOLS

EMBLEM:

The national 4-H emblem is a four-leaf clover with the letter "H" on each leaf.

THE 4-H'S:

The 4-H's stand for Head, Heart, Hand and Health. These 4-H's represent the four-fold training and development in which members participate. This meaning is given in the pledge below.

PLEDGE:

I pledge:

My HEAD to clearer thinking,
My HEART to greater loyalty,
My HANDS to larger service, and
My HEALTH to better living,
for my club, my community, my country, my world.

All 4-H members should learn the 4-H pledge.

MOTTO:

"To Make the Best Better."

This should be the objective of every member and leader.

SLOGAN:

"Learn By Doing."

COLORS:

The 4-H colors are green and white. The white background of the flag symbolizes purity; the green 4-H is the color of springtime, life, and youth.

4-H PARENTAL RESPONSIBILITIES

Parent interest and encouragement are major contributions to young 4-H'ers. If parents are involved right from the beginning, chances are significantly greater for a successful 4-H experience for the child.

- Assist your child in selecting a 4-H project he or she can do and will enjoy.
- Read the project book your child receives. You'll find ways you can help your child with the project.
- Attend 4-H club meetings and activities with your child. This will help you understand the type of assistance your child needs.
- Read the 4-H mail that comes to your home. This will help keep you up to date, and you will be able to remind your child of upcoming events and due dates.
- Encourage your child to attend 4-H meetings and activities. See that your child has transportation to get to the events.
- Offer to assist the 4-H club leaders with specific tasks.
- Provide light refreshments for your child's club meeting when asked.
- Lend your kitchen, backyard, living room, garage, or basement for an occasional 4-H meeting when requested.
- Share a hobby, skill, or interest of yours with 4-H club members during a meeting or workshop.
- Assist your child in keeping records on his or her 4-H work. 4-H members must keep a written record of what they do in 4-H; this record is turned in to the County Extension Office on the fourth Monday in January. The journal includes 4-H project work, demonstrations, awards received, leadership positions held, and community service involvement. (See page 10 for more on record keeping.)
- Guide and encourage your child, but avoid doing the project for him or her. Working on a project together can be fun for both you and your child.

4-H MEMBER'S RESPONSIBILITIES

Some of the major responsibilities of the 4-H member are:

- Complete an Application for 4-H Membership form and give it to the 4-H leader. Enrollment forms are due annually by October 1 of the current year.
- Select one or two 4-H projects with the help of your parents.
- Read the 4-H project book related to your project(s) and complete the activities in the book. (Members are not limited to activities in the book and may want to do other activities relating to the project.)
- Attend and participate in 4-H club activities, community service, and fund-raising.
- Help plan and support 4-H club activities, community service, and fund-raising.
- Read 4-H mail that comes to your home. Share the information with your parents.
- Keep a current, up-to-date 4-H calendar of meetings and activities. Ask parents to remind you of upcoming events and due dates.
- Ask your parent, relative, or other adult to serve as a 4-H project helper.
- Serve as a club officer or on a committee when asked.
- Take an active part in the 4-H club meeting.
- Prepare a written record of your 4-H project work and turn it in to the 4-H leader at the proper time.
- Share a hobby, skill, or interest of yours with other 4-H members at a meeting or workshop.
- Keep parents informed about 4-H meeting, projects, and activities.
- Do at least one method demonstration or illustrated talk on your 4-H project.
- Conduct yourself at all times in a manner that would be a credit to you, your family, your 4-H club, and your county.
- Talk about 4-H to friends and invite them to become 4-H members.
- Develop an exhibit about your 4-H project. Take it to your club meeting to show what you have accomplished in your project.

4-H JOURNALS

The Arkansas 4-H Journal is one place to show others what you have accomplished in your 4-H career. Completing the journal is much like completing a portfolio. Through your journal, you exhibit your accomplishments and how you have developed responsibility by keeping records. Throughout your 4-H career, you will find your journal useful in evaluating past achievements and in making improvements in future plans.

The Arkansas 4-H Journal was formally known as the 4-H Record book. There are still four levels of journal guidelines: Cloverbud (ages 5-8), Beginner (9-12), Intermediate (13-15), and Advanced (16-19). All four levels have specific guidelines. These guidelines are included with each report form, which can be downloaded from our website at www.uaex.edu or obtained in the county office. Report form covers are available for $2.50 at the County Extension Office.

4-H journals should be filled out completely, accurately, and neatly. Parents may oversee the child's work and may even type the book for the 4-H'er; however, the activities must be done by the 4-H'er. Encourage your child to work in their 4-H journal throughout the year. 4-H Journals are due in the County Extension Office in January—check with your leader and in the 4-H Clover News for the exact dates. The 4-H reporting year is from January to December of each calendar year.

4-H'ers submitting journals are invited to participate in special 4-H recognition activities. Everyone who turns in a record book journal is invited to attend the 4-H Achievement Banquet at no cost to them. Senior books are submitted for state judging and may qualify for state and national awards, which include trips and scholarships.

Beginning with the Advanced Record Book winners named in 2000, Advanced Journal winners must apply for Category B scholarships (available to current or former state advanced journal winners only) the year they will graduate from high school. To be eligible for these scholarships, graduating high school seniors or those already in college or a post-secondary institution, must submit a completed scholarship application (due Feb. 1) and must have submitted an application to the college or institution of higher learning of their choice. If an advanced winner is applying for a journal scholarship in a year AFTER the year they are named a journal winner, he or she will only submit a scholarship application.
