4-H INFORMATION

Basic Beginning 4-H Sewing Club

The Sewing Club has begun, and we have finished our first project to enter the county fair. A huge thank you to all who are actively participating in this workshop. Teaching basic skills and creating projects are the goals of the workshop, and I feel this is going well. The January 2022 date of the workshop is January 12th at 3:30. Parents are welcome to attend and participate as well. So far, we have a group of Extension Homemaker Club Volunteers who are helping with this project. A special thank you to this group of ladies who are helping.

Ross Photography

Remember this contest will be coming up in the Spring. Allow your child to snap some great pictures now through Spring as the state 4-H Ross Photography is always fun to enter. All you and your child will need to do is ensure you have great snapshots - email to the office - and wait and see if they win any prize! Easy as 1, 2 and 3! This contest is state sponsored and a great way to get involved with a state event.

Dairy Contest and Rice is Nice Contest

Our county is awaiting the guidelines for this awesome contest. The past two years the event has been virtual, and the presentation of the recipes was beautiful! Please assist your child in locating a recipe for these two contests. Arkansas Farm Bureau sponsors these great contests to our 4-H youth. Farm Bureau provides cash prizes for the youth and an overall grand prize for each contest.

Invite Friends to Join 4-H

Please feel free to invite a friend to attend a local 4-H club meeting with you. Growing together in 4-H is a great way to keep your friends for life.

Club Meetings

Please reach out to your club leaders to find out dates and locations of your club meetings. We are excited to begin this new year with IZARD COUNTY 4-H members.

County Events

As we move forward into the year of 2022, please continue to watch your email and our office Facebook post about the county sponsored 4-H events. The County sponsored events will be conducted by Michael and Elizabeth. Attending these events will go towards achievement awards at banquet time.
