The Arkansas Cooperative Extension Service offers its programs to all eligible persons regardless of race, color, sex, gender identity, sexual orientation, national origin, religion, age, disability, marital or veteran status, genetic information, or any other legally protected status, and is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer.

Who Are We?

EHC is one of the largest nonprofit volunteer groups in the state with a membership of 4,400 men and women and over 350 clubs. Extension Homemakers, the Cooperative Extension Service, the University of Arkansas, and the United States Department of Agriculture are partners in providing education to families throughout Arkansas.

What Do We Do?

Pike County EHC partners with the Pike County Department of Human Services and the Pike County Health Department to provide supplies, backpacks, and healthy baby baskets for local families and children.
