

Sheep & Goat Reportable Disease

THE DISEASES LISTED BELOW ARE TO BE REPORTED IMMEDIATELY TO THE STATE VETERINARIAN'S OFFICE AND/OR USDA VETERINARY SERVICES. A (*) INDICATES DISEASES REPORTABLE TO THE STATE HEALTH DEPARTMENT

Veterinarians are called upon to identify and control the escalation of infectious and zoonotic disease.

- Ovine Epididymitis
- Caprine and Ovine Brucellosis (excluding B. ovis)
- Caprine Arthritis/Encephalitis
- Contagious Agalactia
- Contagious Caprine Pleuropneumonia
- Enzootic Abortion of Ewes
- Ovine Pulmonary Adenomatosis
- Nairobi Sheep Disease
- Salmonellosis
- Scrapie
- Maedi-Visna
- Leptospirosis
- Foot and Mouth
- Rabies*
- Rinderpest
- Peste des Petits Ruminants
- Lumpy Skin Disease
- Rift Valley Fever
- Bluetongue
- Sheep Pox and Goat Pox
- Anthrax*
- Aujesky's Disease (Pseudorabies)
- Echinococcosis/Hydatidosis
- Heartwater
- Q Fever*
- Paratuberculosis (Johne's Disease)
- New and Old World Screwworm

Please call the Arkansas State Veterinarian Office for more information at 501-823-1733

UofA
DIVISION OF AGRICULTURE
RESEARCH & EXTENSION
University of Arkansas System