Awards and High Point Information:

- Cloverbud participants will all be presented the same award.
- High-point awards will be awarded in the judged performance division and speed events division. Only those classes within that division will count towards that division. Ranch Riding and Showmanship will count in the performance division.
- First place in a class will receive 10 points, Second place will receive 9, and so on to the tenth placing.
- There will be one award for the Junior division and one award for the Senior division. Pony classes DO NOT count for Junior High Point.
- The points are tabulated on a one horse/one rider combination. However, participants may enter more than one horse in the individual working classes.
- Tie breakers for all division high points will be number of 1st places, 2nd places, 3rd places, etc.
 - If there is still a tie in the speed division, the pole bending class will serve as tie breaker, followed by barrel racing.
 - Trail will serve as tie breaker for the judged performance division, followed by horsemanship then western pleasure.
