

2020-21 Wheat Research Verification Program Fall Update

April 9, 2021

Update No. 6

General	By Chad Norton and Chris Elkins. Weather forecast has warmer weather with little rain chances. Wheat fields continue to have excellent growth. Disease pressure has remained low and the most commonly found is septoria. Stripe rust has been found in surrounding fields. Insect pressure also remains very low at this time.
County	Variety	Feekes Stage	General Information
Arkansas	Pioneer P26R41	10	Should start heading next week.
Ashley	AGS 2055	10.3	Heading is almost over. Preventative scab treatment should be next week. Looks good.
Chicot	Pioneer P26R45	10	Should start heading next week. Looking good.
Clay	Dixie Bentley	8	Excellent growth, good weed control. Disease remains low in canopy.
Jefferson	Local Seed LW 2848	10	Should start heading next week. Looks good.
Lawrence	Delta Grow 1000	8	Continues to look good, Flag leaf starting to emerge. Disease remains low in canopy.
Lee	Local Seed LW 2848	10	Should start heading next week.