

RICE FIELD SPELLING BEE

Can you unscramble the key word in each definition?

Various species of UKCDS flock to rice fields in the fall after harvest to feed on grains of rice left over from harvest.

-----

Farmers OLDOF their rice fields mainly to control weeds. Rice is a semiaquatic plant meaning it can live in water for long periods of time, where as weeds do not live in water very well.

-----

During VSATREH, the mature crop is separated from its stalk by using a piece of equipment called a combine. This is done 120-150 days after the rice seed is planted.

-----

After being harvested, rice is taken to a LIML where the husk and bran layers are removed to produce an edible, brown or white kernel

-----

IERC serves as a primary protein source for over half of the world's population. It is categorized as a swamp grass that is grown and used as a nutritious food source for humans and animals like ducks.

-----

Ranking number one in rice production, ASNKASRA produces more than 40% of the U.S. rice production.

-----

A variety of rice that provides a natural aroma when cooked and has a flavor similar to roasted nuts or popcorn. Arkansas has it's very own AORMAITC rice variety called ARoma-22.

-----

BONUS