Article I Name

The name of this organization shall be the Arkansas Extension Homemakers Council, Inc. The term Council or The Council when used hereinafter shall be defined to mean the Arkansas Extension Homemakers Council, Inc. The term County Council when used hereinafter shall be defined to mean the County Extension Homemakers Council.

Article II Mission Statement

The mission of this organization shall be to empower individuals and families to improve their quality of living through continuing education, leadership development, and community service.

Article III Objectives

Section 1. To further strengthen, develop, coordinate, and extend adult education to improve the quality of living through the programs of the Cooperative Extension Service, University of Arkansas, and the United States Department of Agriculture.

Section 2. To provide opportunities for members cooperating in Extension family and consumer sciences and other educational programs to pool their judgment and experience for the progressive improvement of the home and community life, and to spread the influence of the program.

Section 3. To offer a means by which members in cooperation with the Cooperative Extension Service, University of Arkansas, may interpret and promote programs of state, national, and international importance in the protection and development of the American home.

Section 4. This Council is organized and operated for the exclusive purpose of continuing adult education within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

Article IV Membership

Section 1. The membership of The Council shall be by County Councils. The membership of The Council is open to all eligible persons without regard to race, color, sex, gender identity, sexual orientation, national origin, religion, age, disability, marital or veteran status, genetic information, or any other legally protected status. Applications for membership may be made by a County Council representing members organized through the Cooperative Extension Service, University of Arkansas. The County Council shall have a membership of one or more Extension Homemakers Clubs and may have members-at-large.

a. An Extension Homemakers member is a member of an active Extension Homemakers Club; an EH Club is a structured organization with elected officers (President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, and President-Elect), a regular meeting time, and a commitment to support the mission of the county and state organization and to participate in its educational and outreach function. The mission of the club shall correspond with the mission of the organization.

b. A Project EHC member is a member of a Project Extension Homemakers Club. The group may or may not be structured – there is a contact person, if no elected officers. The meeting times are not necessarily on a regular basis but rather at the discretion of the members of the Project EH Club. They agree to support the mission of the county and state organization and to participate in its education and outreach function where possible. The mission of the Project EH Club shall correspond with the mission of the organization. A Project EHC member is represented at county council meetings by a representative chosen by the Project Clubs.

c. An Extension Homemakers Member-at-Large is a membership category that may be adopted by a County Council. The membership classification is available to an individual in an area where an Extension Homemakers Club is not organized or where the individual cannot meet regularly with an organized club because of employment or other scheduled activities. An Extension Homemakers Member-at-Large is a member without vote.

Section 2. A County Council applying for membership in the Arkansas Extension Homemakers Council shall be nondiscriminatory and shall submit its application in writing to the AEHC President for approval by the Executive Committee. The application shall be accompanied by a copy of the Constitution and/or Bylaws of the County Council and dues for one year, and by a written agreement to abide by the Bylaws of The Council.

Section 3. There shall be districts composed of County Councils corresponding to the number and designation of the Cooperative Extension Service, University of Arkansas districts.

Article V Officers and Their Election

Section 1. The elective officers of The Council shall be:

- a. A President, a President-Elect, a Vice President, a Secretary, and a Treasurer.
- b. One Director from each of the districts, to be elected by the delegates from that district.

These officers shall be elected at the Annual State Meeting for a term of two years. The President-Elect shall serve a two-year term followed by a two-year term as President. No officer shall serve more than one term in the same office, with the exception of the Treasurer who may serve two consecutive terms.

Section 2. Qualifications and Eligibility:

- a. Each candidate for office must have the endorsement of their County Council and their County Extension Agent - Family and Consumer Sciences and a completed Arkansas Extension Homemakers Council nomination form.
- b. Any nominee eligible for President-Elect must previously have served on the AEHC Board of Directors within the preceding five years and have served as a County Council President.
- c. A nominee for any other AEHC office must have previously served as an elected officer of a County Council (President, President-Elect, Vice President, or Secretary-Treasurer).
- d. A nominee shall not be an employee of the Cooperative Extension Service, University of Arkansas.
- e. A nominee shall be an active member of a local Extension Homemakers Council Club.
- f. A member-at-large shall not be eligible for an AEHC Office or District Office, elected or appointed.
- g. The District Directors and Associate District Directors shall reside in the district in which the individual serves.

Section 3. The Method of Nominations and Election Shall Be as Follows:

- a. All nominations for AEHC Officers and District Directors shall reach the Nominating Committee postmarked on or before May 15, preceding the election.
- b. The AEHC Nominating Committee shall be appointed by the President with the approval of the Executive Committee. This committee shall consist of the Immediate Past President representing the AEHC Executive Committee to serve as chair and a President of a County Council in each of the remaining districts. This committee shall present nominees for President-Elect, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer. They shall be elected in even years.
- c. The District Nominating Committees shall be appointed by the President with the approval of the Executive Committee. These committees shall consist of the retiring District Director serving as chair and two County Council Presidents, each of the three being from a different county in that district. These committees shall present nominees for District Directors. The District Directors shall be elected in odd years.
- d. The respective committee shall present nominees for each office. The chair of the nominating committee shall adhere to the following nomination process:
 - 1. Include a list of all eligible candidates in the President's packet at the Annual State Meeting.
 - 2. The slate of candidates will be introduced at the opening session of the Annual State Meeting.
 - 3. The slate of candidates will be submitted to the Board of Directors during the Annual Meeting.

4. Nominate only those who are eligible (Article IV, Section 2, of the Bylaws) and who have given consent in writing, endorsed by their County Council after consultation with their County Extension Agent - Family and Consumer Sciences, and have submitted a completed AEHC nomination form.
5. Notify each candidate with copies to the County President and County Extension Agent - Family and Consumer Sciences of the committee's decision on or before June 1 and request those selected as nominees to attend the Annual State Meeting, at which the election is to be held at no expense to AEHC.
6. In the event of more than one candidate, election shall be by ballot at the business meeting. A majority of those entitled to vote and voting shall constitute an election. If a majority vote is not reached after two ballots are cast, all names shall be deleted except the two who received the largest number of votes on the second ballot, and the voting continued.

Section 4. Term of Office:

- a. Officers shall serve for a term of two years.
- b. Newly elected officers shall take office on July 1 following the election.
- c. Vacancies among officers other than the President or President-Elect shall be filled by appointment by the President with the approval of the Executive Committee for the remainder of the unexpired term. If an officer has served more than half a term, the officer is considered to have served a full term in that office.
- d. If an appointed officer serves more than half a term, the term will be considered a full term and the officer cannot be re-elected for that position.
 1. The vacancy of President shall be filled by the President-Elect. The officer who serves more than half of a term as President is considered to have served a full term.
 2. The vacancy of President-Elect shall be filled by the Vice President. The officer who serves more than half of a term as President-Elect is considered to have served a full term.
 3. The vacancy of Past President shall be filled by appointment by the President with the approval of the Executive Committee for the remainder of the unexpired term. The appointee shall have served as President of the Arkansas Extension Homemakers Council.
- e. In the event a member of the AEHC Executive Committee is unable to fulfill his/her duties as a result of illness, family illness, and/or other unavoidable situations which are deemed to be short term or not more than 90 days in duration, the President may appoint an interim person to fill that vacancy. Any costs associated with this interim position will be taken from the budget line item designated for that position. At which time the original board member is able to resume their duties the interim position will cease to exist.

Article VI Executive Committee

Section 1. The Executive Committee shall consist of the President, President-Elect, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, District Directors, Immediate Past President, and (Parliamentarian, without vote).

a. The Immediate Past President shall serve a two-year term as an advisory member to the Executive Committee with vote.
