

NO JOB AFTER GRADUATION

By Ashley Foster

After the celebration, many graduates are faced with unemployment or in jobs that don't support their interest or degree area. This can be very discouraging for recent graduates.

7 TIPS

ON WHAT YOU CAN DO

By: Ashley Foster

KEEP GOING!

Be persistent in your job search. Make your job hunting your new job.

REGISTER.

Sign up on job-search engines, business networks like LinkedIn, or social media sites like Facebook.

NETWORK.

Contact alumni in your field. Make new contacts by joining professional groups in your area.

CAREER CENTER

Even though you have graduated your school's career services can still help.

TAKE A TEMP JOB.

Temp work pays the bills & helps build skills and experience. It may even lead to a full-time job.

GET YOUR FOOT IN THE DOOR

Try an internship or part-time gig. Do a good job and it may pay off!

BUILD NEW SKILLS.

This makes you a more appealing candidate. Try volunteering. This will also open your network.
