

eXtension Financial Security for All Community of Practice

Vision:

- To be widely recognized as an educational provider that engages and empowers people to become capable to earn, save & invest, protect, spend, and borrow to build financial well-being across the life span.

Mission:

- The Financial Security For All Community of Practice (FSFA CoP) is a community of Cooperative Extension family economics professionals who provide research-based information about personal finance topics to help people manage their money wisely and improve their lives.

Who Participates:

- Anyone interested in financial education and financial security within the Cooperative Extension System

What We Do:

- Twitter Contests/YouTube Live Events
- America Saves Contests – 30 Days of Saving
- Free Monthly Professional Webinars
- Information Sharing with Colleagues Nationally
- Collective Evaluation Reporting
- Rapid Response to Emerging Needs (i.e. Data Breach)
- Conversations with National Program Leader - USDA NIFA

When We Meet:

- 2nd Wednesday of the Month via zoom (2 pm EST)

Join Us:

- <https://people.extension.org/communities>
- Search for Financial Security for All

For More Information:

- Lorna Saboe-Wounded Head (2019 Chair)
Lorna.WoundedHead@sdstate.edu

