

Advanced Training Project

The Advanced Training Project was developed as a retention strategy to keep members in the program who wish to obtain more in-depth knowledge about specific topics and get advanced levels of certification. To be eligible to attend an Advanced Training class, an individual must have been in the Master Gardener program for three (3) years. The project will focus on developing and planning Advanced Trainings around the state with various host counties, which will provide additional opportunities for further learning.

.